

The Rankin/Mon Valley/Pittsburgh Section of the National Council of Negro Women's "True Worth" Academic Scholarship

The true worth of a race must be measured by the character of its womanhood.
- Mary McLeod Bethune

$1000
non-renewable scholarship for first year students entering college.

To apply follow the link below
or email us for a copy of the application

<https://tinyurl.com/y8pteurm>
ncnw.trueworth@gmail.com

Deadline:
February 1, 2019 @ 11:59 PM

Notification
March 1, 2019
via both email and phone

Award Details:

The Rankin/Mon Valley/Pittsburgh Section of the National Council of Negro Women's Annual "True Worth" Scholarship is a tribute to the singular legacy of educational commitment and leadership excellence exhibited by our founder Mary McLeod Bethune. This scholarship has been established to provide financial assistance to a Black woman community leader seeking to further her education in college and beyond.

Eligibility:

- Must identify as a woman of African descent
- Must be a graduating High School Senior at the time of application submission (Spring 2019)
- Must be attending school in Rankin, Mon Valley, or Pittsburgh, PA
- No affiliation with the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW) is necessary to apply.
- Must be able to attend the Rankin/Mon Valley/Pittsburgh Section of the National Council of Negro Women Ninth Annual Legacy Awards Luncheon on Saturday, March 23, 2019

Email ncnw.trueworth@gmail.com with questions and/or concerns